The First Angel's Message

Revelation 14:6–7

R Recap

In our last lesson we looked at the beginning of the Three Angels' Messages and discussed the everlasting gospel. The gospel is to go not to Seventh-day Adventists only — but to the churches, the prisons, the farthest lands. To the whole world.

Our conclusion was this: God's Son has died so that, as John 3:16 says, even someone like Hitler — if he believed — might not perish but have everlasting life. Today we look at the first message itself.

Revelation 14:7

1 Saying With a Loud Voice

Isaiah 6:4–5 | 1 Thessalonians 4:16

The angels crying "Holy, holy" in Isaiah 6 are speaking at the top of their lungs — if they have lungs — and the very posts of the door are shaken. In 1 Thessalonians 4:16, the loud voice of the archangel is what calls forth the dead from their sleep at the second coming.

What does this mean for us? The gospel is a message to be preached with power and certainty. If the angel of Revelation 14:7 spoke in a low voice, we might doubt what he had to say. But a voice that shakes the room says something unmistakable: this is the truth, and I am certain of it.

2 Fear God

Proverbs 1:7 | Proverbs 9:10

The first two words of the message are: Fear God.

Well, isn't that an obvious thing? What does fearing God actually mean?

Proverbs 1:7 tells us that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. To fear God means acknowledging a power greater than yourself — and recognising that you are the recipient of wisdom and knowledge from the One who holds it all. The person who despises God's instruction does not fear Him.

Proverbs 9:10 takes it further: knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. To know God implies relationship. There is a difference between knowing a person and knowing about a person. God calls us to know Him — not merely to know about Him.

And how do we fear God?

Genesis 1:1 | Exodus 20:8–10 | Deuteronomy 4:4–8

The Genesis account gives us the foundation: God deserves to be feared because He is the reason the earth exists. He created it all — including you and me. Our weekly cycle of six days of work and one day of rest reflects His own pattern at creation.

Exodus 20:8–9 reads like an instruction any person might give, but verse 10 reveals the reason behind it. By keeping the Sabbath, we acknowledge God not only as our Creator but as our Redeemer. It is worth adding that one of the greatest ways to demonstrate our fear of God is by keeping the Sabbath.

And since Exodus 20 is the Ten Commandments, the fear of God is also shown through obedience to His law. Proverbs 1:7 reminds us: fearing God means receiving His wisdom and instruction. Deuteronomy 4:4–8 shows us what that looks like in the life of a people set apart for God.

3 Give Glory to HimJohn 17:4–9 | Philippians 2:5–11 | John 17:3

The message continues: give glory to Him.

John 17:4 gives us the clearest answer: the Father is glorified through the completed work of Jesus Christ. Verse 8 is particularly important — the disciples believed that Jesus came from the Father, and it was this belief that brought glory to God.

Philippians 2:11 says that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Satan's argument in heaven was precisely against this — he refused to acknowledge Christ's rightful position. When we do what Satan did, we fail to glorify God.

To glorify God is to lift His name through belief in Christ. It was through the life of Christ that we came to understand who the Father truly is. John 17:3 brings it home: eternal life is knowing the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom He sent.

NEXT WEEK

Assignment: Next week we look at the hour of His judgment. What does the phrase in Revelation 14:7 — "...and the hour of His judgment has come" — mean?
